

Organisation Membership Application

Organisation Membership is for business and institutional entities with an interest in fire protection and safety, but who are not involved in the manufacture and/or supply of fire protection equipment and/or services.

FPA New Zealand offers a diverse range of benefits that add real value for our members. The Association is committed to advocating the importance of fire protection to policy makers while professionally representing the industry to the wider community.

There are four levels of organisational membership based on employee numbers. These are Gold, Silver and Bronze, and Platinum by special application to the FPANZ board.

All Organisational members and their staff agree to be bound by the FPANZ Code of Ethical Conduct and by the FPANZ Complaints and Disciplinary Procedure.

Organisation members receive:

› Newsletters and Electronic Updates.

The full suite of targeted communications from FPA New Zealand including regular newsletters, all important industry announcements, press releases and events updates, plus the monthly FPANZ Magazine.

› Conferences, Seminars & Workshops.

Discounts on event entry and exhibition fees.

› Voting and Nomination Rights.

Voting and nomination rights at FPA New Zealand Board of Directors annual elections. Members have the opportunity to significantly influence the leadership of FPA New Zealand by voting and have the opportunity to nominate other members for consideration for these positions.

› Eligibility for Standards New Zealand Committees through FPA New Zealand. Eligibility to represent FPA New Zealand on Standards New Zealand Committees in accordance with the rules for the operation of Technical Advisory Committees.

› Eligibility for Special Interest Groups.

Eligible for Special Interest Group in accordance with the rules for the operation of Technical Advisory Committees and Special Interest Groups.

Terms & Conditions

Code of Ethical Conduct:

By applying to become a member of FPANZ you agree to, and are subject to the FPANZ Code of Ethical Conduct and the FPANZ Complaints and Disciplinary Procedures. This Code protects the integrity of the FPANZ brand by setting standards of behaviour expected of all Members in relation to their work and their dealings with customers, stakeholders, regulators, other members and the public, and provides for a transparent policy and process to consider any complaints against any Member, consistent with current expectations of a professional body.

FPANZ Logo:

All FPANZ individual, corporate or organisation members who wish to use and access the FPANZ trademarked logo on business stationery, marketing collateral and their website agree to be bound by the FPANZ terms of use clause. Use of the FPANZ Logo is permitted on Individual, Corporate or Organisation members' vehicles. The use is subject to the FPANZ conditions and is only granted as part of the annual membership structure for Individual, Corporate & Organisation based memberships.

Privacy Policy:

FPA New Zealand respects the privacy and personal information of its members. Personal and business information is collected by the Association for the primary purpose of providing services to members and maintaining the membership register. FPA New Zealand aims to manage and protect personal information in accordance with national privacy guidelines recommended pursuant to the Privacy Act 1993.

Termination of Membership:

FPANZ may at the discretion of the board of directors terminate or suspend a membership for, failing to keep membership subscriptions current or failing to adhere to the FPANZ Code of Ethical Conduct. These conditions are outlined in the constitution and the FPANZ Code of Ethical Conduct.
